PLANT SPECIALISTS FIND NO SUBSTITUTE FOR RUBBER SUPPLY

By OVID A. MARTIN
WASHINGTON, July 9.—(P)—
After many months of intense investigating and experimenting, agriculture department plant specialists and engineers have about concluded that there is no quick, easy source of natural rubber to replace supplies cut off by the war.

Departmental studies have been directed at such rubber-producing plants as guayule, cryptostegia, Russian dandellon,, gondenrod and rabbit brush.

Most promising of these, in the opinion of the department's rubber specialists, is guayule, a slow-growing shrub native to Mexico and parts of Texas. Some progress has been made toward commercial production of rubber from this plant. Sufficient seedlings are expected to be grown this summer to plant at least 50,000 acres next winter.

These reports said a German naval squadron in which three heavy cruisers and eight destroyers acvy cruisers and eight destroyers ac-companied the Tirpitz, put out from shelter in Norwegian fjords several days ago aiming to inter-cept a large convoy carrying arms to Russia from the United States and Britain.

COLLEGE STATION, July 9.—
(Spl.)—Almost any feed crop is worth twice as much an acre when made into silage as it is in the born or stack, according to E. R. Eudaly, dairyman of the A. and M. College Extension Service. This is especially true of corn and grain sorghum crops which will not make much grain. It applies equally to sweet sorghums, Johnson grass and be left standing until the grain is hard, they will make better silage, provided the majority of the leaves feeds should be made into silage even though the leaves are burned or dried up. Wheat Advances Again.
CHICAGO, Puly 9.—(47)—Renewed buying late in the ecceion today lifted wheat prices more than a cent a bushel to new highs for the mast six weks.
Additional flour business, bringing millers into the market again, as well as expectations of speedy house action of legislation to advance government loan rates on basis commodities to full parity, which already has been passed by the senate, prompted the upturn.

Wheat showed maximum net gains of as much as 13-4 cents at one time, rallying more than 2 cents from the carly low point, and closed 1 to 1-3 higher than yesterday, July 1.21-1.21 1-8. September 91-23 7-8-3-4. Corn finished unchanged to 1-8 lower, July 87-3-4. Soptember 90: oats unchanged to 5-8 up; orge 3-4 to 1 higher; soybeans 1-8 lower to 1-2 higher.

Chicago Grain Table well-prepared axis powers. Democracy has always depended upon time to gain the final triumph, but this is a war of speed with little time given for extensive pre-distance, Jackson declared.

If the United Nations ultimately triumph, a new democracy will rise in America, he said. This democracy will be based uupon principles and will hold greater opportunities for the average individual, he continued. The present form of economy will be wined.

opportunities for the average individual, he continued. The present form of economy will be wiped out, social equality will flourish, and an era of administrative government will be ushered in.

The war is not being fought to retain our present institutional form of government so much as to insure the establishment of high and respected principles of living, he pointed out. Among these abstract values, Jackson listed truth, beauty and goodness. Principles such as these survice when institutions perish of their own weakness, he said.

President Frank V. Williams presided. Jack Paul and Dr. R. L. Hollgsworth had charge of the program. Chairman Paul introduced Jackson.
